

Medical records review

All Magellan Complete Care providers must maintain Medical Records for each member in accordance with the standards as listed in the Provider Handbook.

Magellan Complete Care will routinely audit medical records to determine adherence with Magellan Complete Care standards and compliance with AHCA requirements. In addition, audits will be conducted when a pattern of complaints, poor quality outcomes or potential quality of care concerns are identified.

